

Questions for Lawyers:

1. Do you like to read books related to crimes?
2. Do you like to decode crime documentaries by yourself or wait for the conclusion?
3. Do you like to participate in debates?
4. Do you think of punishing juvenile and adult offenders or law-breakers by yourself?
5. Do you think you have strong communication skills to appeal someone?
6. Do you like to attend the detailed informations more?
7. Do you try to interpret cases that gets highlighted in news or social media in the light of the system of laws?
8. Have you ever think of convincing city council members to pass a new law?
9. Do you consider yourself to be flexible enough to adjust with new rules and regulations?
10. Do you constantly upgrade yourself with current affairs?

Questions for Psychologists:

1. Do you consider yourself to be empathetic?
2. Do you help your friends or a couple to solve out their problems?
3. Do you like to analyze logical deduction from a theory?
4. Do you find it interesting to learn about the case history of a person?
5. Do you talk to your mates about their personal issues and try to help them?
6. Do you consider yourself to be a keen observer?
7. Do you like gather scientific or logical facts and draw conclusions based on those facts?
8. Do you like to work for educational opportunities for learning disabled children?
9. Do you find it interesting to know about the various psychological disorders and make researches on it?
10. Do you consider yourself to be a very good listener?
11. Do you think yourself to be open minded and eligible to accept dynamic thoughts?
12. Do you find working with/for mentally retarded children appealing?

Questions for Engineers:

1. Do you like to trace the causes of automobile engine difficulties?
2. Do you take the risk of tearing down an antique automobile and re-built it part by part?
3. Do you prefer reading about historical development of scientific data?
4. Do the idea of making new app or website ever fascinated you?
5. Have you ever invented a new “gadget” with basic stuffs or unconventional materials?
6. Do you take the lead to repair any equipments or apparatus?
(solder wires in place according to an electrical diagram)
7. Are you more inclined towards science?
8. Do you constantly update yourself with various technical knowledge and innovations?
9. Are you flexible enough to adjust with the dynamicity of the technological innovations?
10. Do you explore digital gadgets?

Questions for Social Workers:

1. Do you like the idea of working for better shelters for the homeless persons?
2. Do you like to volunteer your services at a home for orphans or abused children?
3. Do you tend to help unknown people in a problematic situation?
4. Do you like to help raise funds for to combat cancer or other diseases/ difficulties?
5. Do you like to work in outdoors?
6. Do you like to help locate living quarters for families who have been evicted?
7. Have you ever distributed food to the needy?
8. Have you ever worked with a volunteer group to help the unemployed?
9. Do you like to provide aid to underprivileged children?
10. Do you find it interesting to visit families who have applied for welfare and provide assistance as needed?

Questions for Interior Designer:

1. Do you like to select furnishings or decorations for home?
2. Do you remove things from places that were kept perfectly fine and then re-arrange them?
3. Do you often experiment with decorative ideas?
4. Do you find it more appealing to decorate something?
5. Do you like to select painting to match the interior of a home?
6. Do you think that you have the recent and upgraded trendy ideas?
7. Do you think constantly about designing your own room in multiple ways?
8. Do you think of portraying any recently viewed ideas in your own home?
9. Do you constantly change the views/settings of your own corner?
10. Do you constantly feel the urge to decorate every corner?

Questions for Artists:

1. Do you think of spending several days at an art festival?
2. Do you like to explore art utensils or art tools?
3. Do you like to explore different ideas and then create something by your own?
(Do you like to prepare illustrations that are to be used for advertisement?)- more appropriate for graphic designers
4. Do you like to paint a portrait in oils?
5. Do you like to paint a landscape in water colour?
6. Do you carefully select landscape to draw?
7. Do you want to draw everything that you find beautiful?
8. Do you want to exhibit your own paintings?
9. Do you like to compare the use of colours in the work of two artists?
10. Do you think you have the perseverance of completing a difficult/strenuous task?

Questions for Writers:

1. Do you like to read literature based books or novels?
  2. Do you use words in new combinations in writing to convey emotions rather than meaning?
  3. Do you approach to new problems with a idea of solving them in a novel fashion?
  4. Do you daydream?
  5. Do you make scenarios and then solve it according to your own judgements?
  6. Do you participate in discussions about a great work of literature?
  7. Do you consider yourself to be introvert?
  8. Do you seek the perfect words to express ideas in speech or writing?
  9. Have you ever think of writing a thesis on comparative literature?
  10. Do you like to study the precise meaning of words?
- ( Would you like to edit a daily newspaper?)- more appropriate for an Editor